

PHIL 345 W 6-8:40 PM

FREE SPEECH AND CENSORSHIP

Dr. Stephen Hicks

Who should decide what books are read? Should pornography be censored? What about politically rebellious pamphlets? Or the advertising of tobacco on television? Or hate language that attacks a person's sex, race, or ethnic origin? In this course, we will study what some of the greatest minds in history have argued about free speech and censorship in art, politics, religion, business, science, and sex.