

Fall 2011 CEE Guest Speakers

Federico Fernández & Martin Sarano on Doing Business in Argentina:

The current business climate and the ethical dilemmas it presents to entrepreneurs and corporations

October 13

11 am — 12:15 pm

SCAR 208

Federico N. Fernández and Martin Sarano are the co-founders of Bases Foundation, a non-for-profit organization devoted to foster awareness and promote the benefits that individual freedoms bring to society. Mr. Fernández (President of Bases Foundation) is currently editing a book on Karl R. Popper which will be published in 2012. Mr. Sarano (Vice President of Bases Foundation) is a Chicago Booth MBA student and has worked in different corporate and consulting roles in various industries.